

Hostile Environment Training (HET) Course - UK

RPS Partnership provides stimulating and realistic training, if we prepare today then we are ready to face the challenges of tomorrow
We have three unique qualities to ensure that your training requirements are to the highest standards

- Our qualified trainers can bring the training to your offices so that your staff have the minimum amount of disruption
- We design the course specifically tailored for your needs
- We only use trainers who hold nationally recognised training qualifications and are experienced security consultants and travellers
- We also have specialist female trainers who can provide more sensitive training for your female travellers

RPS Partnership offers 1-day workshops and 2-day to 5-day residential courses at our training venue in Berkshire (J 10 on M4, 45 minutes from London) We also have an on and off road driving centre in North Wales

One day Workshop

Very popular with ad hoc travellers, classroom based with a mixture of theory, discussion, case studies. Subjects include: planning and preparation, situational & cultural awareness, basic medical training and conflict management

Delegates receive:
A certificate of attendance

Two & three day residential course

These courses act as a refresher to the seasoned traveller, drawing on their past experiences and are a mixture of theory, discussion, case studies and scenario training. Subjects include: Practical role play in planning and preparation, situational & cultural awareness, medical training and conflict management, how to deal with detention, arrest and hostile situations such as a lone gunman

Delegates receive:
A certificate of attendance, Emergency First Aid at Work certificate, valid for 3 years. Where possible an updated First Aid at Work certificate can be awarded and is valid for 3 years

Four & five day residential course

These courses act as the foundation for any traveller going into difficult locations around the globe. They are a mixture of theory, discussion, case studies and scenario training. Subjects include: planning and preparation, situational & cultural awareness, medical training, conflict management & disengagement skills, how to deal with local authorities, detention, arrest and kidnap situations. Use of IT for communications and journey management planning. These courses have a very realistic feel as the role play brings all the subjects to life as you are faced with doing the 'right thing on a difficult day'

Delegates receive:
A certificate of attendance, First Aid at Work certificate, valid for 3 years. Conflict management and disengagement skills certificate

All courses come with a recognised form of certification

For more information please visit us at www.rpspartnership.com and contact us on +44 (0) 1225 290210 or email info@rpspartnership.com

'Giving you peace of mind in a challenging world'