May course - 3rd, 4th, 5th May 2016

Location: Just off M4, junc 10 – good rail links from Central London, near Bracknell, Berkshire

RPS specialises in making training courses as realistic as possible, planning for the worst possible scenario, to ensure that you are fully prepared to deal with any challenges that you may face in a hostile or unfamiliar environment.

Subjects covered

Planning - Journey management

Conflict management - Personal security - Disengagement skills

Cultural considerations - Demonstrations

Abduction/hostage situations - High impact crimes

Weapon Awareness - Mines / IEDs / UXOs

Medical training (EFAW) and Remote trauma - Health and Hygiene in Natural Disasters

Why RPS?

We have a diverse and unique team of male and female trainers; who not only have many years of experience, but who are still travelling to hostile regions and providing security advice to our clients.

We train journalists, NGOs and executives to travel to remote and difficult places of the world.

Our trainers bring a wealth of up to date experiences back into the learning environment.

We share real time experiences and advice with you.

All RPS consultants are qualified trainers and hold nationally recognised training qualifications.

Post Course: on successful completion of the course, each delegate will receive

RPS attendance certificate – evidence which may be required for risk assessments/insurance

EFAW medical certificate (valid for 3 years)
